KNOW THY DESTINY. -- MADAME E. F.

voyant and Psychometrician, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located her; elf at Hudson, N.Y. Madame married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychom-otrope, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert .- cate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communica-

A Young LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and con-fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion.

it all its impurities, kindly healing the same,

LOOKING AT THE BRIGHT SIDE.—Here is a letter from a wife in Massachusetts to her husband in California. She don't intend going through the world with the blues:

"My Dear Husband-As it is now some time since you left for California, I suppose you would be glad to hear how we are getting along in your absence. I am happy to say we are enjoying very good health on the whole. Just at present two of the boys have got the small-pox; Amanda Jane has got the typhus fever; Samuel got hooked by a cow | She will send, when desired, a certified certifithe other day, and little Peter has just chopped off three of his fingers with a hatchet .-It is a mercy he didn't chop them all off .-With these trifling exceptions, we are all well and getting along nicely. "You needn't be at all anxious about us. I almost forgot to say that Sarah Matilda eloped last week with a tin pedlar. Poor girl! She's been waiting for a chance, and I'm glad she's married at last. She needn't dence, Madame E. F. Thornton, P. O. Box 223, have taken the trouble to elope though, for

I'm sure I was glad enough to have her go.-She was a great eater, and I find baked beans don't go off near so fast as they did. The way the girl could dip into pork and beans was a caution to the rest of the family. The cow took it into her head recently to run away, which was very fortunate, I am sure, for the barn caught fire last night and was consumed I was in hopes that the house would go, too, for it's inconvenient; but the wind was the wrong way, so it did not receive much injury. Some boys broke into the orchard the other | sidered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's day and stripped all the fruit trees. I am very | toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can ad of it, for if they hadn't I presume the children would have made themselves ill."

A "ROMANTIC YOUNG GIRL."-Quite a romantic affair came to light in Jersey City last week, a young girl from Illinois having run away from home, donned and male attire with the intention of becoming a sailor boy. The story run as follows: -Ida D. Albert, aged 17 years, a rather pretty, robust but unsophisticated female, whose head had become filled with romantic ideas, in consequence of reading dime novels, concluded to leave home and venture the perils of the sea, under the disguise of male attire. Accordingly, on Monday, a week ago, she helped herself to $275, of her parents money, and left her home near Annapolis, Ill., for New York. Arriving at Annapolis, she purchased a suit of clothes, and after having her hair cropped short, donned the new attire. She then took the cars for New York, arriving on Sunday morning at the foot of Christopher street. She called a hackman and directed him to take her to a hotel. The hackman accordingly conveyed her to the Hubert street House, kept by Thomas J Prendeville. Yesterday morning a lady in the hotel detected the sex of the young woman and gave information to the proprietor of the house .-Prendeville had a conversation with the girl and succeeded in dissuading her from her purpose, and she accepted their advice to return home. She accordingly assumed female attire, and last evening was taken to the Erie railway depot, in Jersey City, for the purpose of tak-
